Some Inspiration

All religions with dressing up and elaborate liturgies run the risk of being the target of today's parable. The gap between how I appear and what I actually do is always there — an inevitable part of the human condition. Accordingly, it is vital not to leave the parable in the past with "the other" safely targeted. The words of Hosea come to mind:

Spare me the din of your chanting, let me hear none of your strumming on lyres, let justice flow like water, and uprightness like a never-failing stream! (Amos 5:23-24 NJB)

In the real world, there's something of both characters in us all, to be honest.

Such an approach may help us recognise and avoid any tendency to anti-Semitism in our reading and application of the parable. It was possible to be a perfectly sincere and authentic Pharisee, as we see in the example of St Paul himself.

In the Jewish Annotated New Testament, the following penetrating comment is offered:

Some readers dismiss the Pharisee as hypocritical, sanctimonious, and legalistic, and in turn identify with the tax collector, the repentant, humble, and justified sinner. ... However, once readers choose to identify with the tax collector and reject the Pharisee, the parable traps them: to conclude in effect (following 18.11), "God, I thank you that I am not like this Pharisee ..." places readers in the very position they condemn.

There are sheets on the tables in the church where parishioners can indicate the times most suitable for them to be present. We would like that there would be 2 people present for each period. If there are vacant periods, we would appreciate volunteers to fill these times by putting their names on the list. Thank you.

We would ask parishioners to be good enough to switch off mobile phones during Mass. Thank you

Our Lady of Fatima Annual Rosary will process around The Lough on Sunday, 27th October, starting with the Rosary at 2:30pm in the Church of the Immaculate Conception, The Lough. There will also be Adoration, Benediction and enrolment of the Brown Scapular. All are welcome to join us.

Reflections

1. There can be an element of defensiveness in our relationships with others. We are reluctant to let another see us as we see ourselves. Occasionally we meet someone with whom we can be totally open and know we will be accepted. With whom have you had that kind of a relationship? What was it like for you to have that freedom?
2. Likewise with God, when we come to prayer pretending to be better than we are, we are hiding from God. What difference does it make when you pray to God, acknowledging your faults and limitations? Have you ever found that when you are humble in this way in prayer, God lifts you up?
3. The parable is also a cautionary tale against judging others negatively on the basis of externals. Perhaps God, who looks into the heart, sees another picture. When have you discovered there was more to another person than the negative picture you got from first impressions?

Parish Café

Coffee/Tea morning is held at the Parish Centre each Thursday morning from 10.30am to approximately 11.15am. It is a very pleasant gathering with lots of chat. A warm welcome and friendly company is guaranteed.

Thought for the day

Humility, humiliation, low self-esteem: these things get all mixed up in our minds and in our feelings. In the past, humility was encouraged by humiliation—really an abuse, which must have caused much harm. Low self-esteem—the root of many problems and addictions—used to be confused with humility. A robust humility is really an exercise in truth-telling about ourselves. If we are to be grounded in the humus (earth) of our human existences, then we do need to be honest in our appraisal, affirming the good and recognising courageously our faults. Humility goes with being human.

Prayer

As we affirm your gifts and rejoice in them, help us to honest and know the full story, warts and all, that we come before you in need of your grace.

K. O'Mahony OSA

Today's Hymns

Entrance

How Great Thou Art
O Lord my God, When I in awesome wonder,
Consider all the worlds Thy Hands have made;
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
Thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, how great Thou art.
Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, how great Thou art!

When Christ shall come, with shouts of acclamation,
And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart.
Then I shall bow, in humble adoration,
And then proclaim: "My God, how great Thou art!"

Recessional

Amazing Grace
Amazing grace, how sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost but now I'm found,
Was blind, but now I see.

T'was grace that taught my heart to fear.
And Grace, my fears relieved.
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed.
Through many dangers, toils and snares

I have already come.
Tis Grace that brought me safe thus far
and Grace will lead me home.
